

Women's Cancer Awareness Group 2012 Inspiration Award

Women's Cancer Awareness Group (WCAG) has been serving the San Francisco North Bay Area since 2003 with special programs to support our goal of raising awareness one conversation at a time. WCAG is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to creating support programs for cancer survivors and to increasing awareness of the risk factors and symptoms of gynecologic cancers.

At our annual Day for Women on Saturday, March 31, 2012, we will honor an outstanding North Bay Area woman who has supported hope, health, and awareness in the cancer community with our Inspiration Award for 2012. The deadline for submitting nominations for this exceptional commendation is January 31, 2012. Finalists will be notified of their status on February 7, 2012, and the winner will be announced at the Day for Women, Saturday, March 31, 2012.

Nominees may include, but are not limited to: cancer survivors; medical professionals; cancer awareness advocates; support group facilitators; teachers; caregivers; and, drivers or other volunteers. Those not eligible for consideration are WCAG Board Members and Advisory Board members, WCAG employees, and past winners of any WCAG award.
